Dedication

During the year, the staff had to meet many challenges to present a yearbook that is significantly new and different. There are two men who deserve immeasurable admiration. The 1971 Emerald, "For Once In My Life", is a tribute to the dedication of Mike Scott, editor, and George Bradfield, sponsor.

Clinton Prairie High School

SCHOOL BOARD :

Mr. Merle Pollard

Mr. John Clendenning

Mr. Ellsworth Biesecker

Mrs. Glen Locke

Mr. Robert Moore

Functioning as the controlling unit of Clinton Prairie, the School Board fixes school policies, hires and replaces teachers and appropriates funds for the various departments.

ADMINISTRATION :

Mr. Herbert Hoffman, Superintendent of Clinton Prairie Schools, co-ordinates state and school board policies with the operation of the schools.

Mr. Harlan Clark principal, is responsible for the complete educational program at Clinton Prairie High School.

Mr. C. Daniel McGrew, the assistant principal has numerous responsibilities, such as admittance slips and counseling.

Mrs. Marian Sims, general secretary synchronizes the inner workings of our high school office. One of her many duties is answering the phone.

Mrs. Sue Bass handles the school's extra-curricular funds, which means counting and making out the proper receipts.

Mrs. Mary Kelly handles the finances of the corporation. Mrs. Kelly, is responsible for paying and recording of transactions of business by the corporation.

Mrs. Betty Siekman is the superintendent's personal secretary. Mrs. Seikman does all the typing for Mr. Hoffman's correspondence in addition to typing for the school board.

Mr. Maurice Croxton, Guidance Counselor, programs students' schedules in addition to administering tests to measure students' abilities and interests.

Mrs. Phillippe counsels a student as one of her jobs as assistant Guidance Counselor.

Mrs. Jean Hurt, librarian, tells of the hazards of drugs in the drug abuse display in the library.

Mrs. Waldron, assistant librarian, looks for a book title in the card file.

BUSINESS :

Mr. George Bradfield is shown instructing his first period typing class. Mr. Bradfield is also Athletic Director, printing instructor, and sponsor of yearbook and paper which are both published by the school.

Yearbook Editor, Mike Scott ponders on a printing problem.

Mr. Bradfield is instructing his third hour printing class in the operation of the new off-set machine.

Mr. Roy Cleaver instructs his general business class on their daily assignments. He also teaches bookkeeping and business math.

Miss Joy Jessup, times her second period shorthand class to check their progress in speed writing. She also teaches business law and advanced typing.

SOCIAL AND FINE ARTS :

The Art Department, under the direction of Miss Seward has shown outstanding art work this school year. At left Miss Seward works at the potters' wheel, making a clay jar. The art department made the back drop for the Christmas Convocation and for the Variety Show. They have also painted empty barrels to be used as extra large waste paper baskets in various rooms. Student work is also done in oil painting, in chalk and in pencil sketching.

The Music Department, under the direction of Mr. Pearson, performs many tasks throughout the school year. Mr. Ehlers is shown directing the high school choir. He also directs the high school band and teaches eighth grade music. The Prairie Singers are also under his baton. Many solos and ensembles were entered in this year's music contest and required much of Mr. Ehlers' time.

Miss Jane Cripe instructs her first period general music class. She is also the director of Stage Bands I and II, and directs the Jr. High band. Many Jr. High solo and ensembles were entered in the annual music contest at Frankfort.

The Prairiettes rehearse for a football half-time show.

ENGLISH

Mrs. Carolyn Estes leads discussion of theme topics in her Senior English class. Mrs. Estes teaches two periods of English and the Speech classes, in addition to her duties as drama instructor.

Mrs. Dorothy Dilley introduces her seventh grade English classes to theme assignments in Literature. Mrs. Dilley is assigned to both seventh and eighth grade English as well as sponsor of the Future Teachers of America.

Mrs. Jacqueline Hughes hands out papers which the students have written using new vocabulary words which they have learned in Freshman English. The student are taught the fundamentals of grammar so that they may be better prepared for Sophomore compositions.

Miss Krause puts the branches on an artificial Christmas tree in preparation for a play put on by her eighth grade English class. The students are able to learn a lesson by acting it out in class.

Miss Sharon Sondgerath points out the mistakes in construction of a sentence written by a Spanish student. Miss Sondgerath teaches Spanish I, II and Junior English classes.

Discussions on current topics are daily assignments in Mr. Gerry Leavell's sophomore English class. Mr. Leavell often acts as moderator rather than teacher in heated debates.

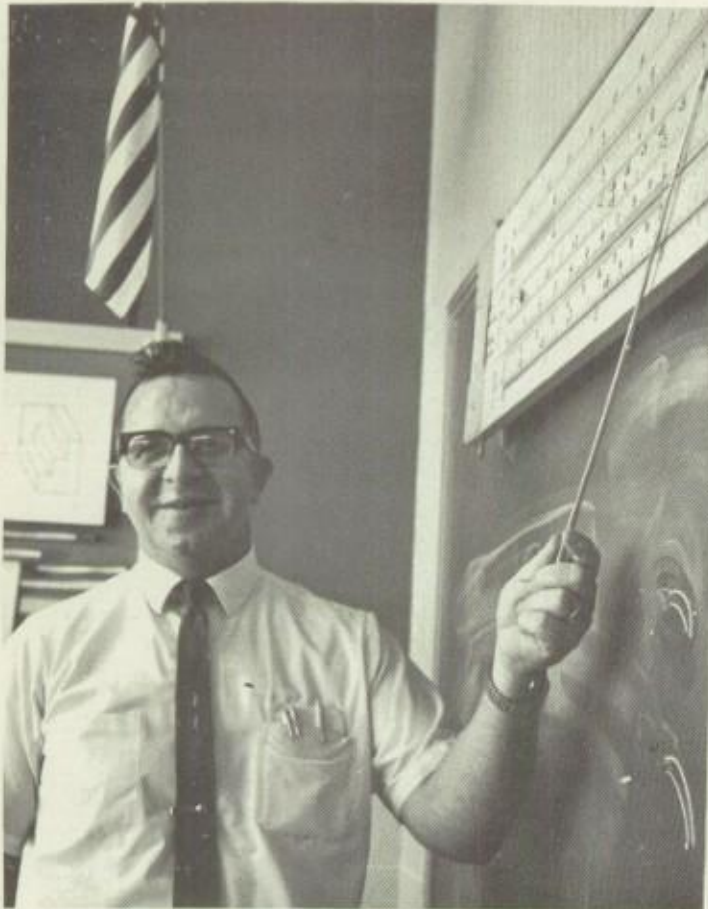

Mr. James Compton discusses American Literature with his Junior English class. Mr. Compton has two Junior English classes and also teaches Latin I, II, and III.

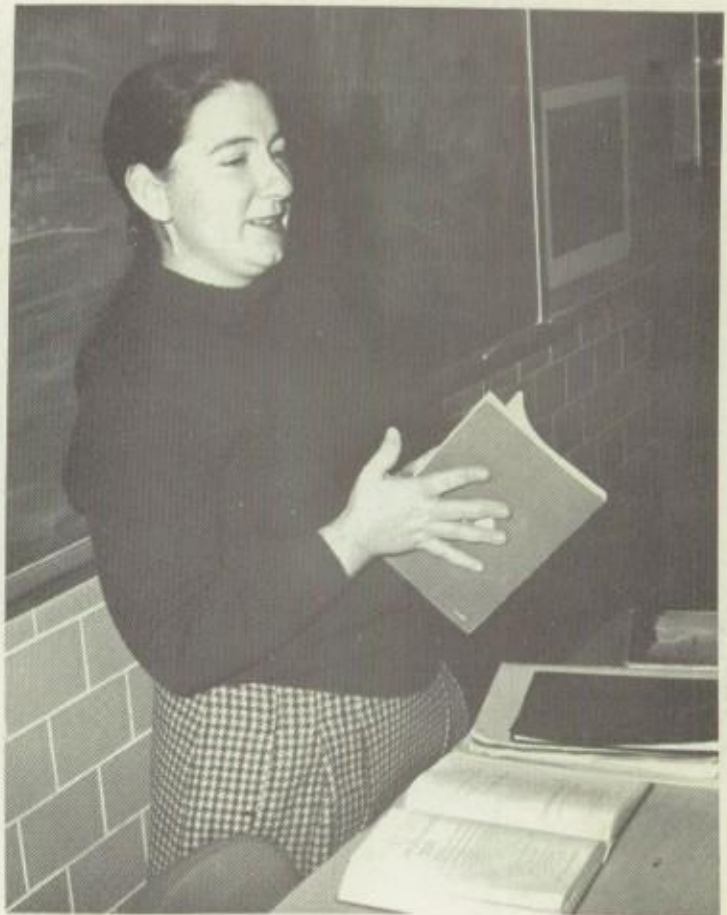

Mr. Compton's HUCK FINN DAY

MATH AND SCIENCE :

Mr. Donald Bowen points to the slide rule which is being used to demonstrate how to use a slide rule. Mr. Bowen teaches Algebra and Geometry.

Mrs. Young answers a student's question about Algebra. She teaches Algebra I and Senior Math.

Mrs. Frita Howell gives the daily assignment to her seventh grade math class. Mrs. Howell teaches the junior high math classes.

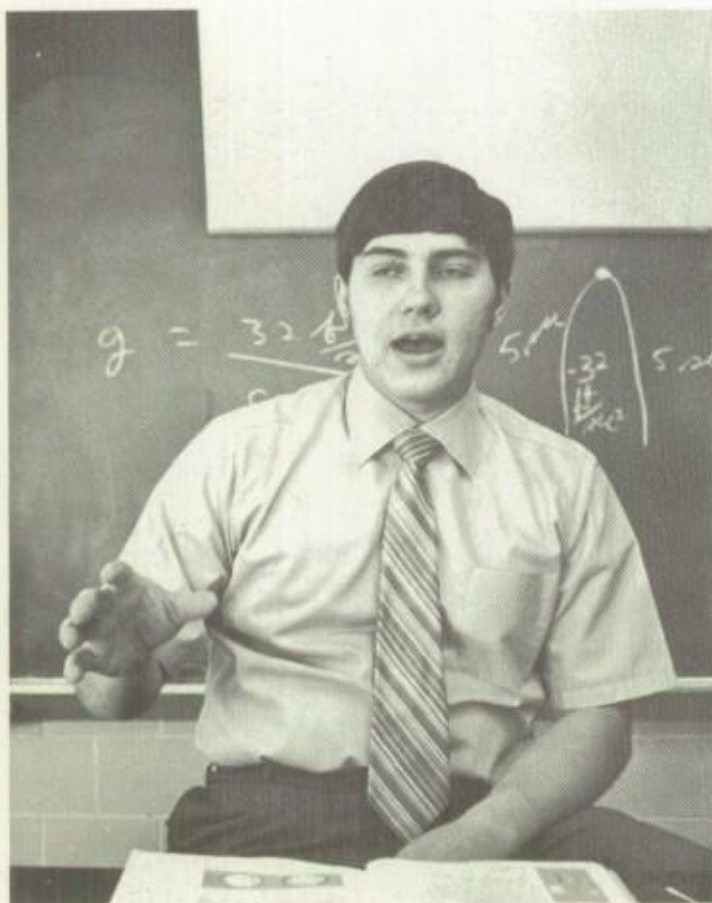

Mr. Larry Smith questions his eighth grade math class about a mathematical equation.

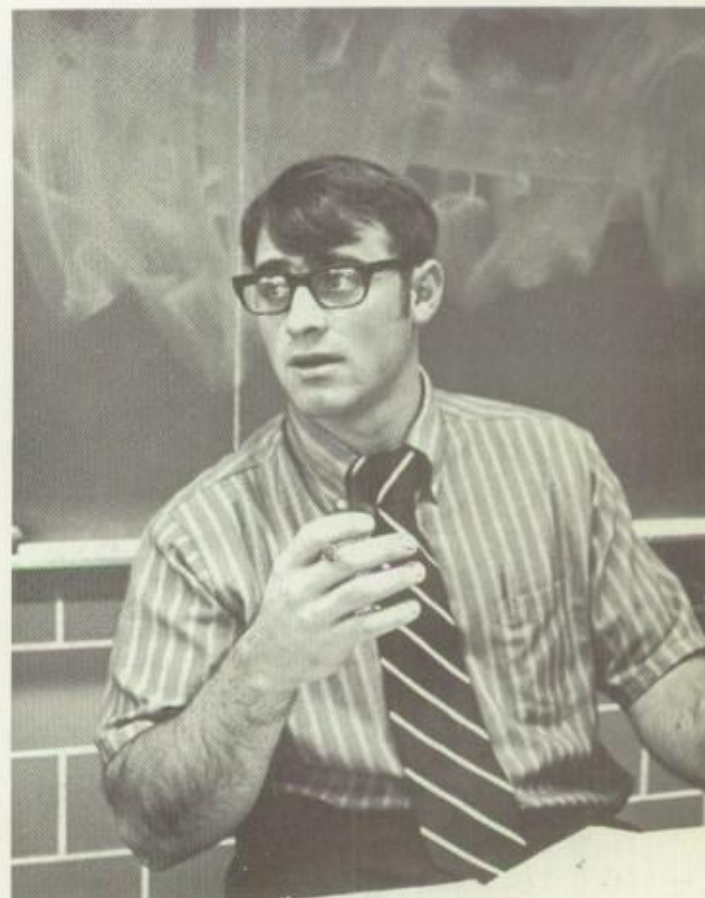

Mr. David Hevron puts a problem on the board for the student to observe and understand. Mr. Hevron teaches seventh grade mathematics and has coaching duties.

Mr. Richard Svoboda goes over test papers with his Biology students. Mr. Svoboda teaches Biology and General Science.

Mr. Ronald Thornburgh explains the function of a chemical equation to his chemistry class. Mr. Thornburgh also teaches physics and science.

Mr. Dennis McDonald explains wind currents to his seventh grade science class. Mr. McDonald is also our school's watchful eye in the halls.

HISTORY :

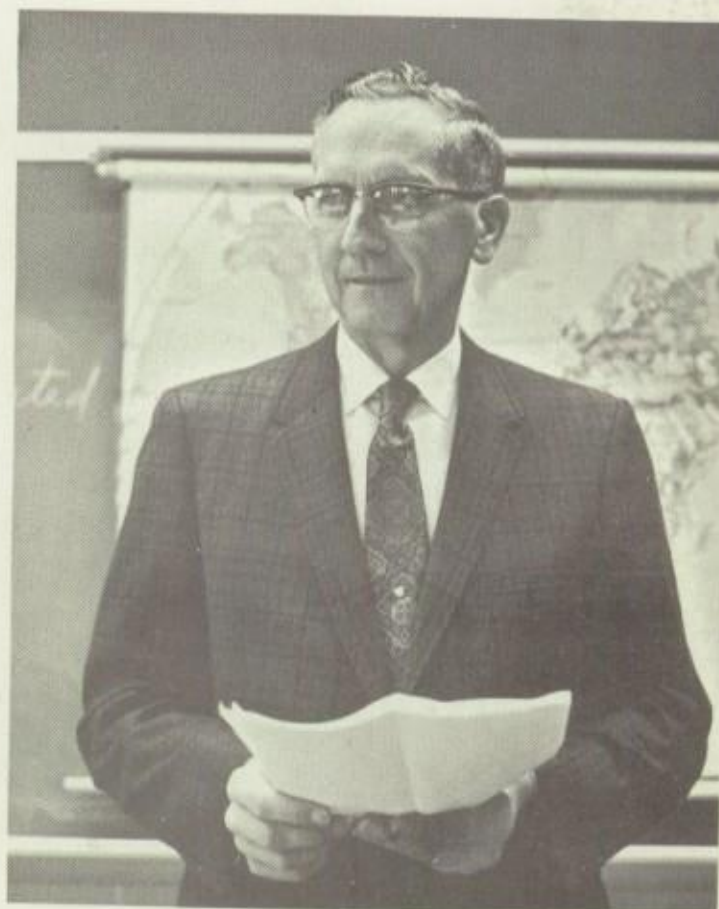

Mr. Brian Wick listens to problems students are having with Government. Mr. Wick is also the Elementary Physical Education Instructor.

Mrs. Neta Jacoby asks her seventh grade Social Studies class a question about a South American country. Mrs. Jacoby also assigns reports so that her students learn how to use our research facilities.

Mrs. Marilyn Dammon listens to students' special reports. Mrs. Dammon teaches eighth grade Social Studies and U.S. History.

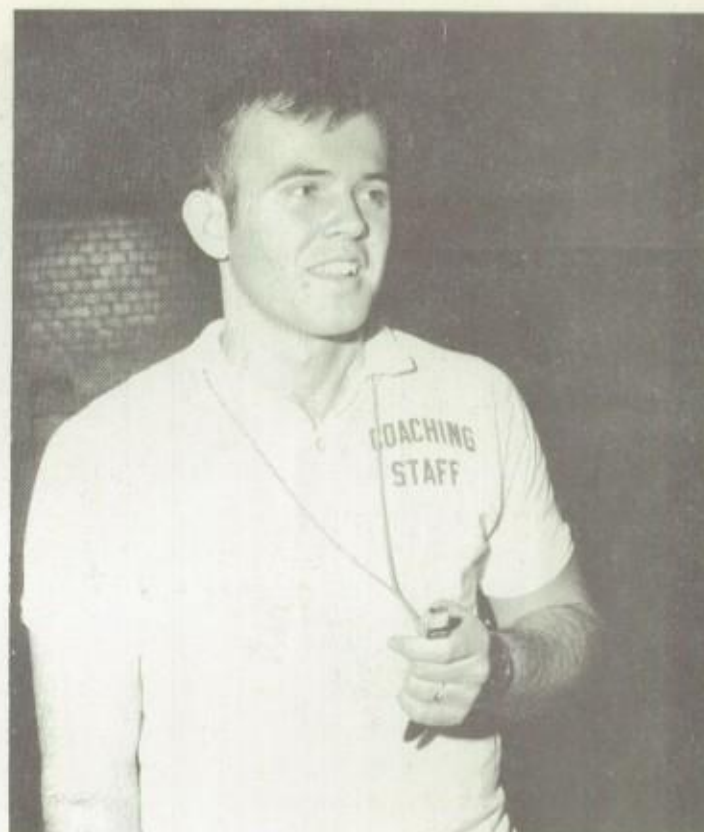

Mr. Alexander teaches his students World History. Mr. Alexander also teaches U. S. History.

Physical Education

Mrs. Leibring leads her Freshman class in exercises before doing work on the parallel bars. Mrs. Leibring helps the girls improve their physical abilities.

Mr. Paul Bowman prepares to sound the whistle for his Physical Education class to get in line for inspection. Mr. Bowman keeps the boys in shape through competitive sports and calasthenics.

Mr. Bowman demonstrates to his class the correct way to jump over the "horse."

Home Economics

Mrs. Muriel Brown show the proper in Home Economics. The girls made dresses and skirts and learned the basic techniques of sewing. Home Ec. is invaluable to girls in grades seven through twelve. The backbone of these courses is consumer buying, which leads to clothing, interior decorating and foods.

Mrs. Esther Hollenbeck teaches a class interior decorating. Mrs. Hollenbeck teaches Home Economics and Health.

Miss Ellen Woods was a student teacher under the guidance of Mrs. Hollenbeck.

Miss Cheryl Surdez did her student teaching under Mrs. Muriel Brown.

HOMECOMING :

Homecomings are traditionally nights of parades, floats, bands, dances and, pretty girls. "A Gopher Mardi Gras" was no exception. Before the game the Industrial Arts float took the top prize for the third straight year. Halftime was the highlight of the Mardi Gras festival as Cathy Ramsey was crowned Homecoming Queen. In attendance were seniors Rosie Stewart and Sandy Clark, junior Jackie LaReau, Sophomore Kathy Clark and freshman Julie Ramsey. Activities rounded out festival night as the Sunshine sold carnations, the juniors sponsored a Chicken Barbeque and the Student Council held a Homecoming dance.

1970 HOMECOMING QUEEN - 58 -

Homecoming day was filled with activities as a pep session honored the team and the juniors sponsored a Chicken Barbeque before the game.

JUNIOR MISS :

A Rachmaninoff piano solo and a perfect 4.0 grade average won the title of Clinton County Junior Miss for Janet Skiles. Janet placed first in the Performing Arts category and shared the Scholastic award with another CP senior, Cindy Essex. Janet went on to state Junior Miss competition and won the Scholastic Award. Eight other CP girls participated in the county pageant: Karen Pullen, Cathy Ramsey, Debbie Hammel, Diane Draper, Jo Ellen Hudgins, Pam Presley, Stephanie Powell and Sandy Clark.

CHRISTMAS ACTIVITY :

Christmas meant activities for many of CP's organizations. In addition to sending Christmas boxes to CP graduates overseas, the Sunshine Society went caroling in the local communities. The FFA sponsored a community service project of raising money to donate to the Cancer Fund. The Music Department had a busy holiday as the band marched in the Frankfort Christmas parade and presented "Sounds of the Season" as the annual Christmas concert. Not to be outdone, the basketball team traveled to Clinton Central and took the 1970 Holiday Tourney crown.

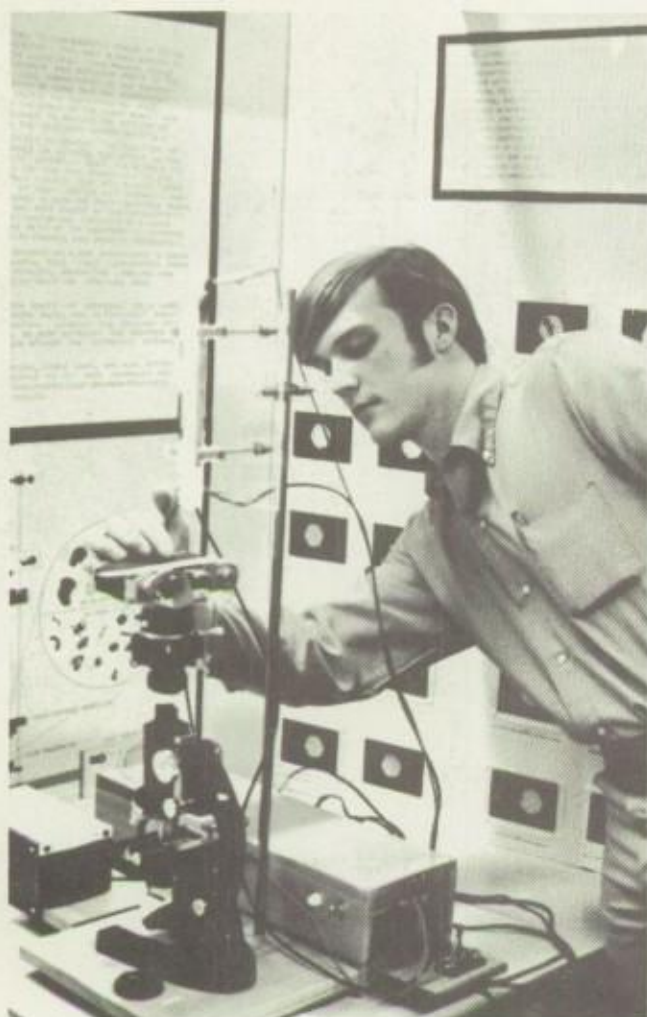

HARDWOOD QUEEN :

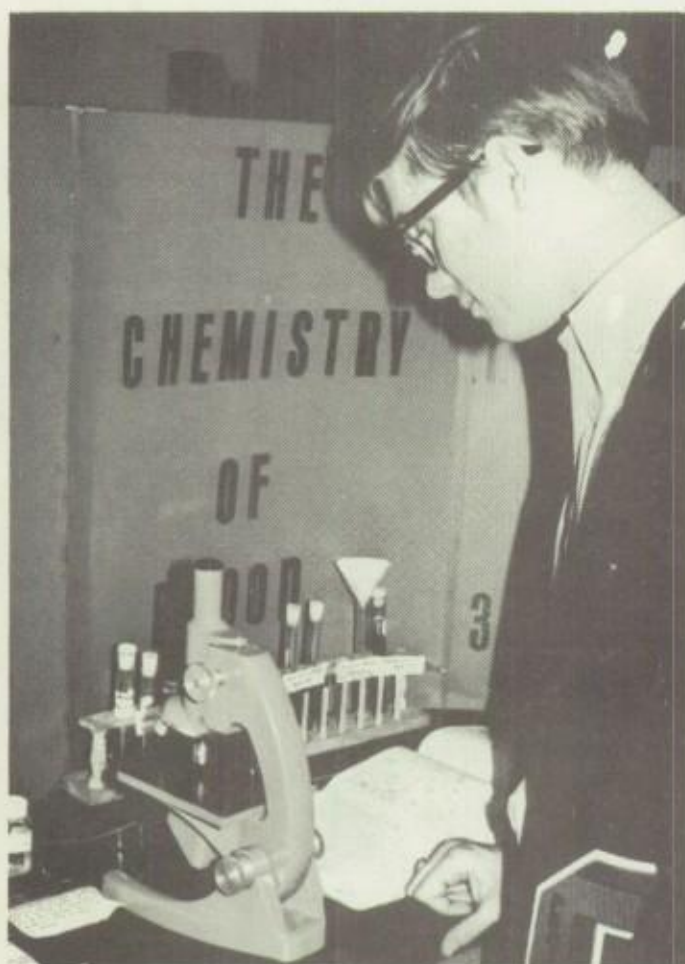

Between halves of the Wainwright basketball game, senior Karen Pullen was crowned Clinton Prairie's first Hardwood Queen. Karen was attended by sophomore candidate Lanelle Stinson and junior candidate Debbie McKinsey. In addition to the queen ceremonies, the Student Council also sponsored a parade of floats. First prize went to the Latin Club; second, Industrial Arts; third, Junior class.

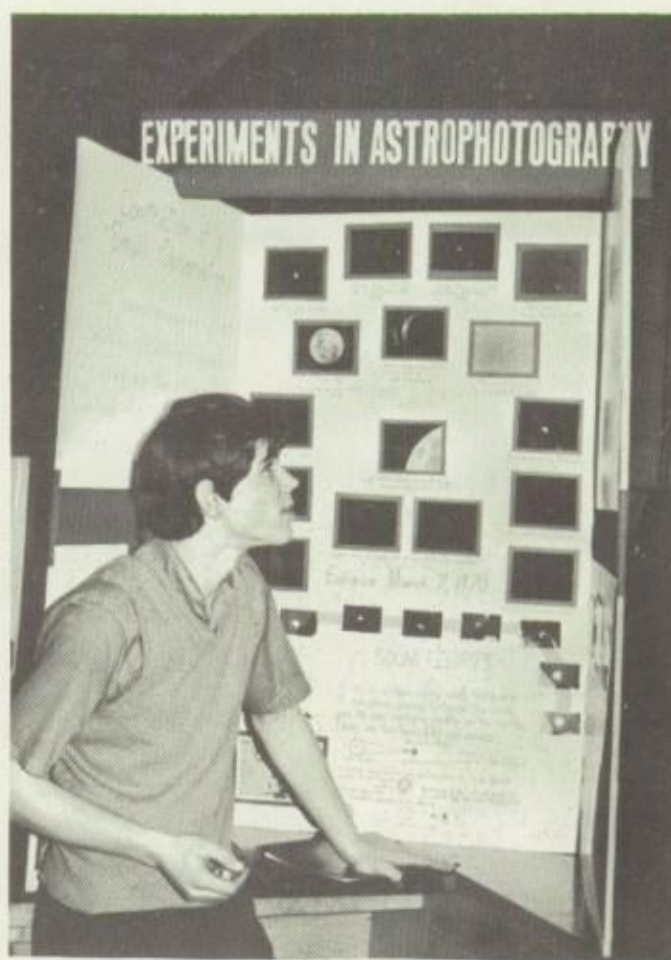

SCIENCE FAIR :

Exhibiting a project entitled "Cell Surgery By Laser", Tom Staley won grand champion in CP's seventh annual Science Fair. Entered in the Biological division, 1971 marked the third straight year that Tom has taken the top award. Tom promptly made it two in a row as he also earned the top honor at the Purdue Regional Science Fair. Along with Mr. Svoboda, Tom exhibited his project at the 22nd International Science and Engineering Fair at Kansas City.

Top prize in the Chemistry category went to Janice and Tom Ficle for their project on "Blood Chemistry". Theirs was also a prominent exhibit at the Lafayette Regional Science Fair.

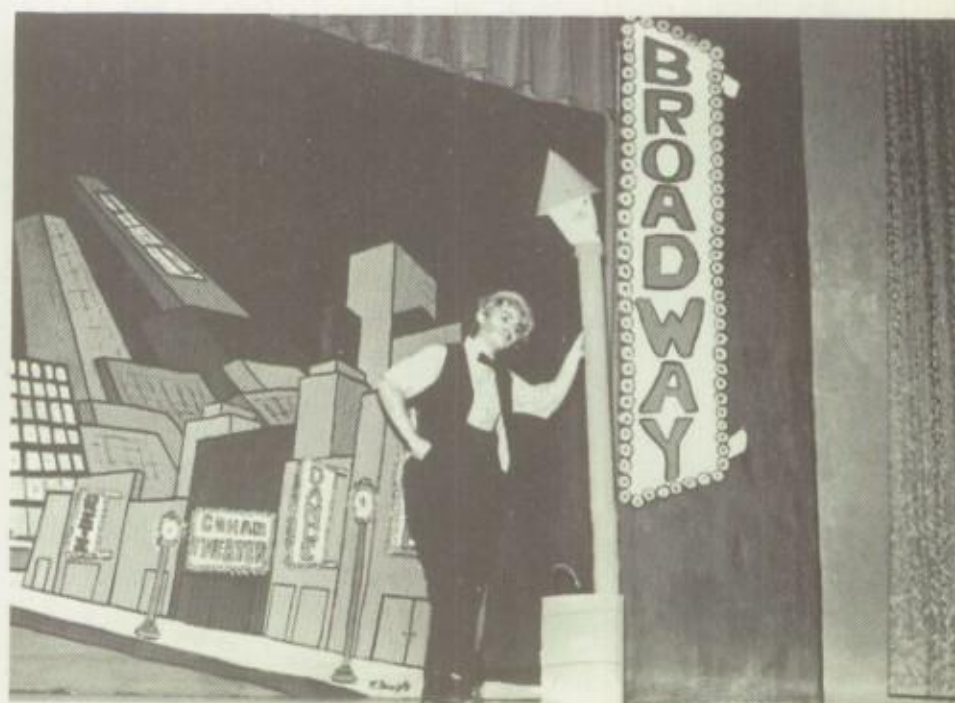

Junior Russell Kaspar took top honors in the Physical Division of the Science Fair. Exhibiting a project on "Astrophotography", Russell went to the Regional Science Fair to win a NASA certificate of achievement. Jim Rex (Spark Chamber) placed second at the CP fair and Fred Roach (Fuel Cell) third in the Physical Division.

VARIETY SHOW :

On the nights of March 25 and 26, the curtain went up on the 1971 production of "Let Us Entertain You", CP's annual variety show. Emceed by seniors Cindy Essex and Fred Heavilon, the cast and crew combined to present the most successful show of recent years. Backed by the Stage Band, nineteen acts offered the best in entertainment.

"Let Us Entertain You" ran for a two night stand and played to a full house each performance. Two highlights of the show were: the senior girls singing as the Prunes, and the Firehouse Five plus Three banging out Dixieland numbers.

Onstage the audience was treated to such walk-ons as Edith Ann and Miss Tomlin, via "Laugh-In", while backstage several ladies from the PTO donated their time to apply make-up.

Three hour rehearsals ... mass confusion ... Who's on next? ... Let's do that one more time ... What! Are we playing 'Something Stupid' again? ... dress rehearsals ... Okay, who's got my prune suit? ... Who's on next? ... emcees ... There are hills and valleys ... lights ... Get that spot out of my eyes ... Mr. Compton ... Take my name off the program ... opening night ... tonight, March.. 25 ... the overture ... Are we on next? ... "Let Us Entertain You", 1971.

SPEECH CLASS PLAY :

On the nights of April 22 and 23, the Speech classes presented their annual play. This year's production was "The Mouse That Roared", a witty satire on international relations. Janet Skiles, Cindy Essex, Bruce Treece and Russell Kaspar were double-cast in the leading roles. Chris Otterman, Mike Rains, Steve Kaspar and Max Whitlock also turned in creditable performances in supporting roles.

1971 HONOR GRADS

Academic recognition and government in action are only two of the goals of Hoosier Boy's and Girl's State. Last, summer, Chris Otterman and Sharri Roberts were CP's delegates to these American Legion sponsored affairs. Held on the ISU campus, delegates attended classes, activities and set up their own governments.

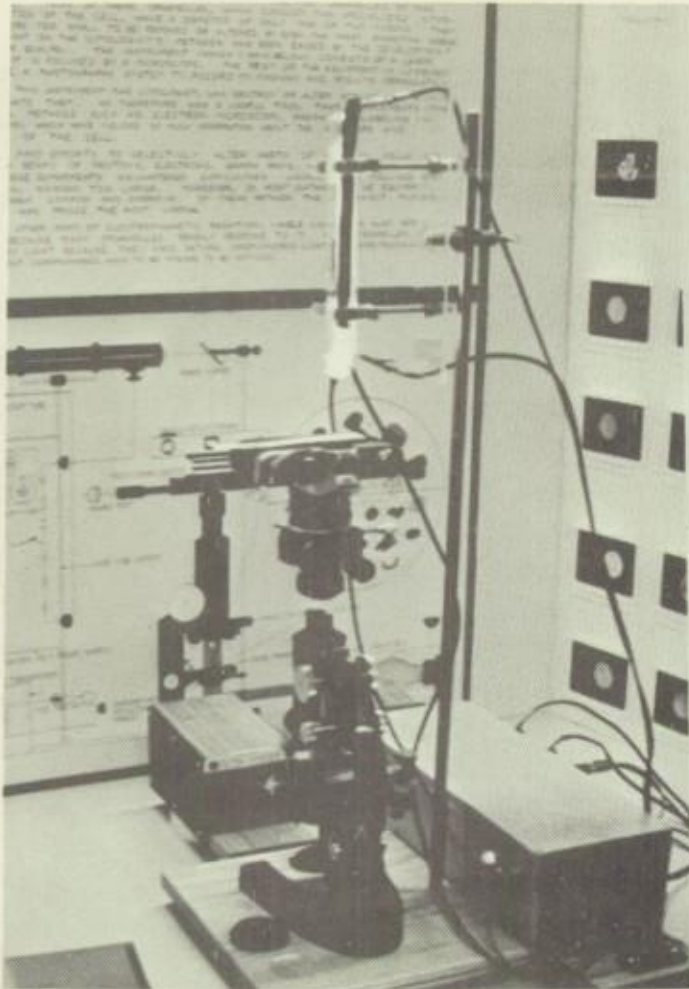

Cindy Essex, the recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution award from Clinton Prairie, was chosen on the basis of her dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. Cindy entered competition covering history and current local, state and national events.

Beverly Davis was named the 1971 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow from Clinton Prairie. Beverly was chosen on the basis of her score on a written knowledge and attitude test given senior girls.

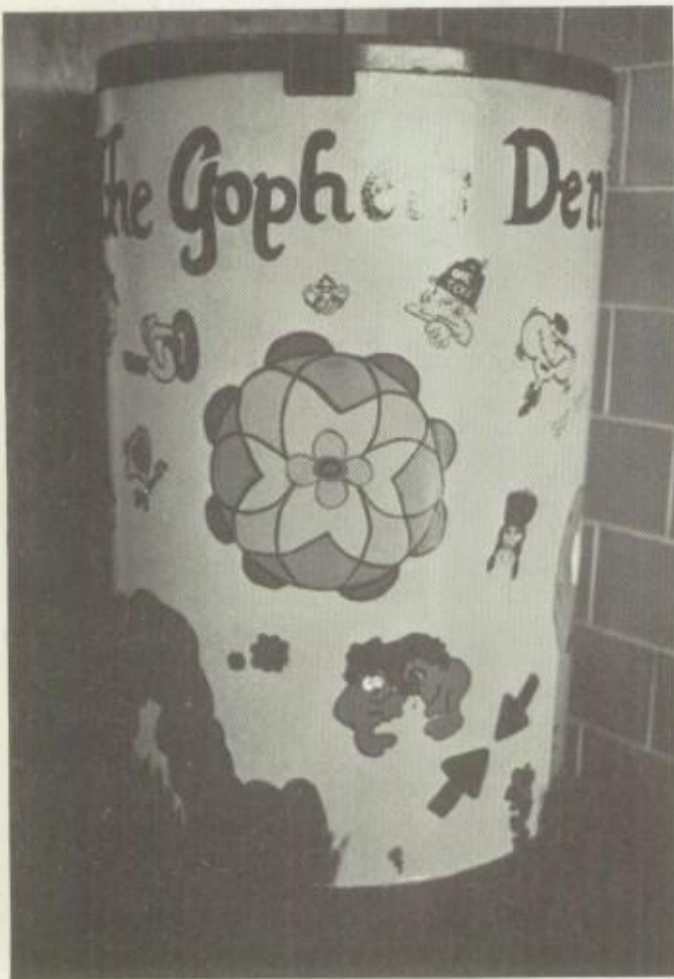

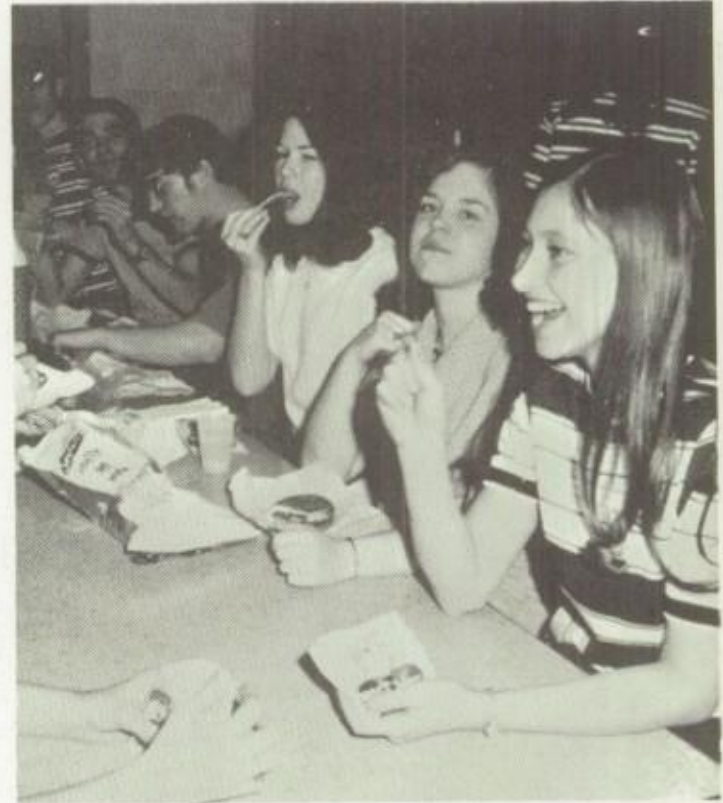

On April 15, a total of seventeen new members were inducted into the National Honor Society. Included were seven seniors: Cathy Ramsey, Jim Rex, Beverly Davis, Arlene Vance, Michelle Huffer, Mary Schiery, and Pam Presley.

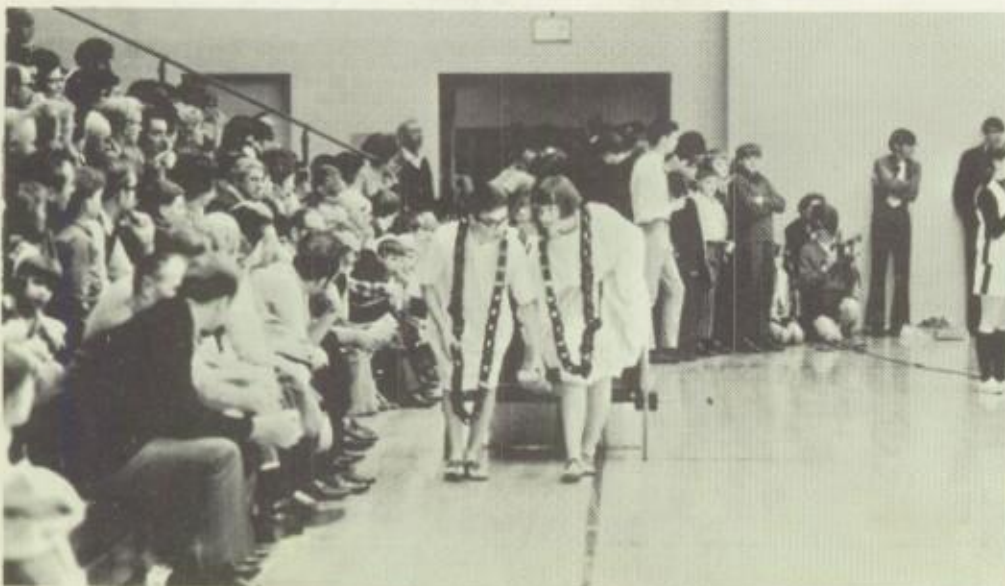

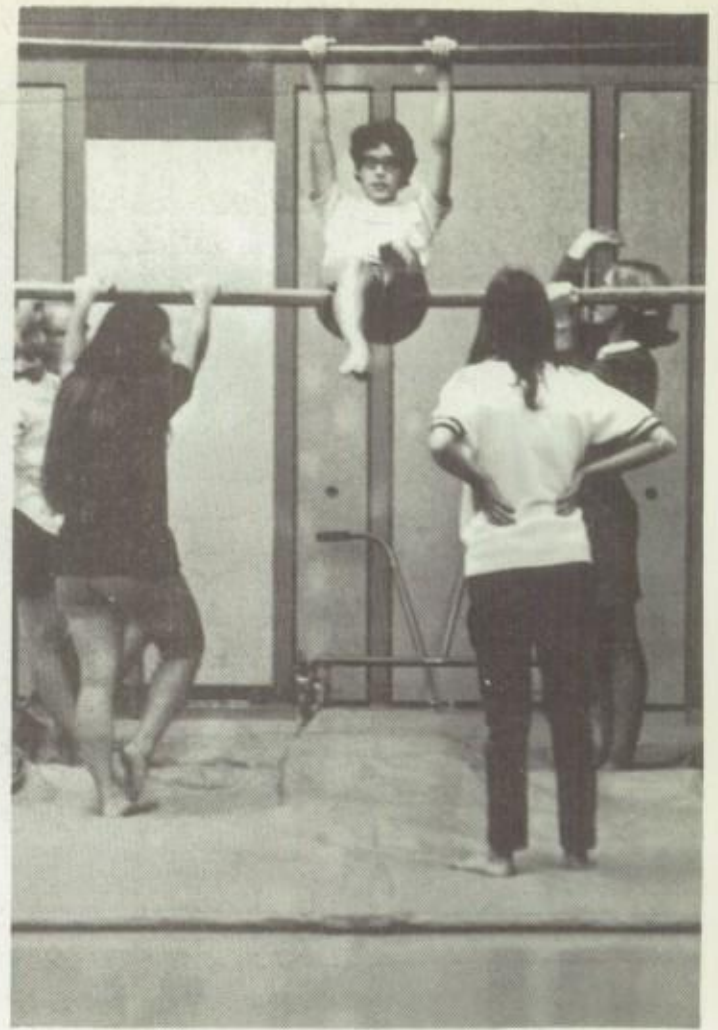

MORE SCIENCE

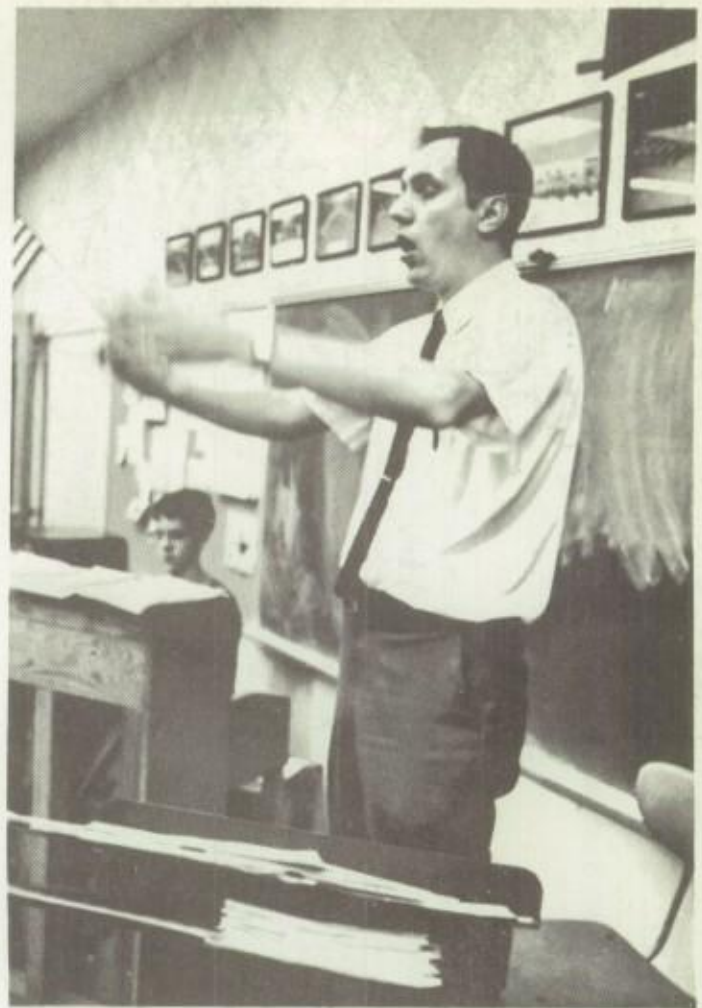

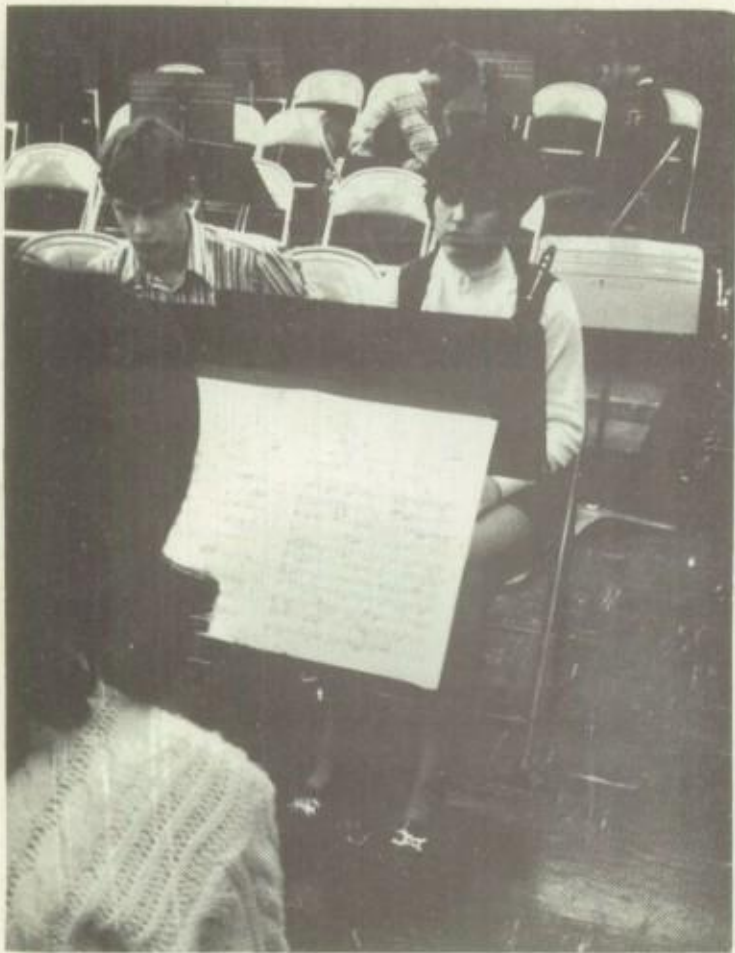

Howdy

The 1971 Junior-Senior Prom was an evening in "Gay Paree" with the decorations being a comparison to a ball room in Paris. Above is Michele Huffer, the Queen and her court, Connie McNelly and Rosie Stewart. Below is Teresa Rutan, the Princess, and her court, Nikki Pletch and Debbie McKinsey. The royalty then danced with their escorts to the music provided by the Ben Davis Stage Band.

The 1971 Prom King was John Rutan and standing beside him are Tom Burke and Tom Smith who were first and second runners-up. Below, Prince Phil Snellenbarger stands by Rick Svoboda and Russell Kaspar, who were the Prince runners-up. These six made the 1971 Prom Royalty complete.
